DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-29, 48-60, and 72-93 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-94 of U.S. Patent No.

6,746,370 ('370). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because for instance with new claim 1, patent '370 claims already:

maintaining a database including subscriber performance data for a plurality of athleticism development program subscribers, wherein said subscriber performance data is capable of enabling an attained standardized athleticism level to be determined

for each one of said athleticism development program subscribers ('370 claim 1 (a) determining an attained standardized athleticism level after facilitating the athleticism level assessment)); and facilitating preparation of a subscriber performance report for a specified one of said plurality of athleticism development program subscribers (performance report is equivalent to facilitating the athleticism level assessment).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
  2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
  3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
  4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
4. Claims 1-29, 48-60 and 72-93 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Patent No.: 6,607,483 (Holland).
5. With respect to the claims Holland teaches a method for managing athleticism development program data (C1, 25-40), comprising:

maintaining a database including subscriber performance data for a plurality of athleticism development program subscribers, wherein said subscriber performance data is capable of enabling an attained standardized athleticism level to be determined for each one of said athleticism development program subscribers (C11,10-45); and facilitating preparation of a subscriber performance report for a specified one of said plurality of athleticism development program subscribers (C11, 10-45).

It also shows receiving subscriber data and all of the other claim limitations which are generally geared towards managing a users athleticism development/weight loss.

Holland fails to teach the exact terminology as used by applicants like calling a persons weight loss progress "subscriber performance data" and terms which may be trademarked, and are certainly geared towards that of the claimed software program that of "O-course data management".

However this is a matter of arbitrary design choice, what it is called does not affect the end result at the end of the day the user is still able to report and track fitness goals and progress on line and also print reports. Also the claims are unpatentable over Holland because these differences are only found in the nonfunctional descriptive data and are not functionally involved in the steps recited. The athletic progress system tracking and reporting would be performed regardless of the type of indicia used. Thus, this descriptive data will not distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art in terms of patentability, see In re Gulack, 703 F.2d 1381, 1385, 217 USPQ 401, 404 (Fed. Cir. 1983); In re Lowry, 32 F.3d 1579, 32 USPQ2d 1031 (Fed. Cir. 1994). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, because such data does not functionally relate to the steps in the method claimed and because the subjective interpretation of the data does not patentably distinguish the claimed invention.
